Interreligious Connectivity digitally explored

17th to 19th of April 2024
University Copenhagen, Søndre Campus, Room 4A.0.56

Wednesday, 17.4.2024

9:00-10:15 Presentation Sessions

- Martijn Naaijer (Copenhagen)
  Studying Religious Interconnectivity Using Annotated Textual Datasets

- Susanna Fischer (Kassel)
  On the Performative Nature of Digital Texts: New Ways of Editing Latin Travel Narratives

- Süphan Kirmizialtin and David J. Wrisley (Abu Dhabi)
  Interreligious Encounters in the Persina Gulf: A Digital Exploration of Manumission Documents

10:45-11:45 Discussion Sessions

- Florence Ninitte (Nantes)
  The Fortleben of the Risālat al-Kindī as a Case Study of Textual Connectivity in Medieval Western Literature

- Alessandro Gori (Copenhagen)
  Connected Qur’anic and Biblical Quotations in the Ethiopian Christian Literatures on Islam

13:30-14:45 Keynote Lectures

- Mikko Tolonen (Helsinki)
  Too Many Stories to Tell? Studying Re-use and Semantic Similarity with Computational Means

Thursday, 18.4.2024

9:00-10:15 Presentation Sessions

- Mouhamadoul-Khaly Wélé (Lyon)
  Digitizing Complex Historical Sources: Tools Used in the NOTCOM and Quran12 21 Projects

- David J. Wrisley (Abu Dhabi)
  Modeling Connectivity in Fifteenth and Sixteenth Century European Travel Narratives

- Jacob Langeloh (Copenhagen)
  Exploring the Network of Christian-Islamic Polemics: Insights and Learnings from the OTRA Project

10:45-11:45 Discussion Sessions

- Ulisse Cecini (Barcelona)
  Dominicus Germanus de Silesia’s Online Edition

- Manolis Ulbricht (Notre Dame)
  Building Shared Conceptions of Interconnectivity in Byzantine Anti-Islamic Polemics and Greek Qur’anic Translations

13:30-14:45 Keynote Lectures

- Monica Berti (Leipzig)
  The Dream of Linked Humanities: Experiences, Infrastructures, Challenges

---

CARLSBERG FOUNDATION

[European Union logo]

[EuQu logo]

[University of Copenhagen logo]

[Register here]